INTRODUCTION

Presentation skills are just as important as designing; one of the best mediums to present your architectural designs is through rendering. Architectural rendering aims to create life-like experiences of the buildings before they are built.

Rendering aids the designer to convey his or her ideas, an image that represents the designers' imagination most realistically.

WHY YOU SHOULD TAKE THIS CHALLENGE?

- To showcase you're rendering skills.
- To challenge yourself, create a single image that represents your design thought process.
- To be able to create a single image that displays briefly and smartly a bundle of ideas.
- To present the idea of 'Quality over Quantity'

An Image that says it all!!!

Create one rendered architectural graphic design that says it all. As this competition aims at exploring and understanding rendering (a medium of conveying designs) to an unimaginable extent, so you are free to choose the type, location, scale.

The Rendering can be hand-drawn or digital.

Archiol is providing a platform to showcase your creativity at a global level. The opportunity is open to all students and professionals. Take this challenge and explore your creativity, let the world witness your ideas.

Specific Requirements:

- A single rendered Image
- A description of not more than 500 words (100 words minimum)

Challenge your creativity and explore its depth ...

In the designing field recognition is everything. Winner will be featured on archiol and all our social media platforms. The results will be published on all our associated platforms.
