ARCHIOL

INTERNATIONAL RENDERING CHALLENGE

LIFE ON MARS

JAN - MAR

2023

“An idea is salvation by imagination.”

- Frank Lloyd Wright

Introduction

Archiol has organized this rendering competition to understand the possibilities of rendering techniques used in architecture design.

“Architecture is a visual art and the buildings speak for themselves”

- Julia Morgan

Presentation skills are an asset for any designer. One of the best mediums to showcase your architectural designs is through rendering. Rendering techniques support the creation of realistic visuals of the architectural design before the actual construction.

This rendering competition challenges you to create one architectural rendered image that depicts life on mars.

The image can either be digital or hand drawn.

"To create, one must first question everything."

-Eileen Gray

Purpose:

This competition aims to understand the possibilities of rendering techniques in architectural design and the extent of imagination in architecture.

To do:

One architectural rendered image that depicts life on mars.

"Architecture is a dangerous mix of power and importance."

- Rem Koolhaas.

Participation:

- This competition is open to all.
- You can participate individually or as a team (Maximum 4 members in a team)

Submission Requirements:

- One image jpeg. / jpg. Format. (dimension: 30cm x 30cm, file size: 25mb)
- A summary explaining the rendering technique with a design title (Min. 300 words) – docx. / docs. Format
